

WHERE: Outside under the tent on the grounds of Wyatt Heritage Properties, 205 Prince Street, Summerside, PEI (the same street as the Lefurgey Cultural Centre).

Other activities taking place at the same time: Yuletide Festival with family activities inside and outside of Lefurgey Cultural Centre, MacNaught History Centre & Archives and Wyatt House Museum.

Goal: Using the December festive season to connect members of the Summerside community with the various cultures of our residents, showcasing the diversity of cultures and foods represented in our community.

Opportunities for:

- ✓ Summerside Food Service Businesses with global food offerings
- ✓ Summerside Residents who want to share their family's culture through food

How does it work?

- We are looking for Restaurants and/or Residents who can prepare 300-400 cold small food samples (approx. 2 oz) that will be shared with the public on Saturday, December 12, 2026 (food will be served cold and heating or warming units are not permitted).

  Note: Attached to this document you will find reference images to give you a clear idea of the 2 oz portion size.

- Restaurants / Residents are asked to attend the December 12 event from 2 - 6 pm to serve food samples and share their culture through food with the public (2 people if possible). Please come a few minutes early to set up.

Note on winter weather: Since the event takes place outdoors in winter, we propose that you have 2 people so that you can organize serving duties in shifts so that vendors can take a break warm up.

- We will provide payment to participating restaurants / residents for food ingredients, preparation time and serving food at the event (2 people). To be discussed.

- Food must be prepared in a licensed kitchen, such as a restaurant or community facility. If you are a resident who needs a licensed kitchen, we are happy to provide the licensed kitchen at Lefurgey Cultural Centre for you to prepare your food offering. We will also provide a person to support you in making your food.

To express your interest in participating, please send an email as soon as possible, while vendor spots are available. Deadline November 15, 2026.
